1. In all these Writ petitions Advocate for respondent no.2 who is original complainant, makes a statement that the Complainant will be put in the witness box and his oral evidence will be led in lieu of examination-in-chief. In view of this statement which is accepted, nothing more survives in these petitions and the same are disposed of. Matters to appear on the board of the trial Court on 16.3.2006. Both parties waive notice of the said date and the Advocate for respondent no.2 states that the Complainant would be kept present before the trial Court on the next date.
